RACE REPORT

By Victoria Edstrom

The June points event at Lake Tech had all the usual symptoms of a Florida summer day: stifling heat, drowning humidity, and a relentless sun. Despite the broiling temperatures, an amazing seventy-five drivers came out, with fourteen of those being 'Novices'. This made for some interesting competition, especially considering the buffet of rather unusual autocross vehicles.

There were ten single-driver classes. So even though they are winners, it would seem that drivers in these classes are also losers—thereby making it a rather hollow victory. Bob Blucher beat himself to win B Street. Kim DeBower took D Street. Dawn Giddens was a spectator for the event and so Chi Ho was in F Street all alone. Jon Wright had H Street to himself and his vintage Corolla. Tristan Sothern had a beautiful Porsche GT3 out in SSR. Ben Oenbrink was in a Miata all by himself in STS. Oliver Yao had his Evo in SM. President Mickey Gauldin set a blisteringly fast time alone in SSM. Zane Plumley had a small victory just by his TT actually making all five runs without breaking down in B Street Prepared. And it is never even a question as to whether Richard Fickes will set an extremely fast time in his C Mod car.

Since the event was so close to Father's day, there were several Father/Son teams in the very large Novice class of fourteen drivers. The Larsons were out doing a bit of family bonding in the form of trying to beat dad in their little Miata. However, the most exciting novice rivalry was between Mike and Pete Small in their M3. Mike ended up taking first place over the entire novice class with a time that would have been good in whatever class he competed in.

Super Street had the usual Vette rivalry between Aaron Stogsdill and Don Hosler, but this month there were not one, but TWO Vipers thrown into the mix. However, Hosler outmaneuvered the competition in his '02 Blue on this deceptively tight course and ended up with a time that was a hair over a second faster than runner-up David Corda in his Viper.

A Street Prepared had two different Mazda RX-7's—surprisingly, neither of which was driven by a member of the Giddens family. Alex Flores took the class win over Merle McDowell by 1.6 seconds, although Merle had one run that was very close to Alex's time but was dirty. Terry Glazar in his Evo took first in SMST4 over two Subarus and another Evo. He was over a second ahead of Paul Dahlquist, who was then over a second faster than the person behind him was.

E Street had a new competitor/champion in Buzz Thompson, who just got a new (to him) Toyota MR2 Spyder to replace his Ferraris. Apparently, he made a good decision since he was able to beat the course designer Scott Swartz and another two '99 Miatas, which are considered to be one of the greatest autocrossing cars of all time. D Prepared also featured a showdown between an MR2 and a Miata: Belvoir vs. Lambert. After a few rough runs, "Bobby Socks" Belvoir pulled off one of the fastest times of the day and won his class. D Street Prepared was exclusively filled with Miatas. Mathew Lowe and Josh Coffin went back and forth with the times all day but Lowe came through with the victory by just a quarter of a second.

STF is quickly becoming a rather large class with five racers for this event, especially since Ben Turner came over from H Street in his Mini. Just last year, nobody consistently drove in the class. Even though Buzz defected to go play around with Miatas in ES, competition was fierce. Ferdi van Teeffelen took first place due to some new tires and painted rims on his Celica; beating out the Mini, Matrix, and Fiat. And speaking of Fiats, Michael Peterson placed first in SMF in an Abarth. Having that sixty extra Turbo HP really does make a difference! He was well ahead of the rest of the class due to the awesome power that comes from driving a Fiat.

The Toybaru FRS/BRZ has taken Martin by storm. Out of the nine drivers in C Street, only Justin Hough in his 350Z drove anything else. However, Greg Schumaker in his BRZ ended up with the fastest time. This was mirrored in STX since Chris Hammer beat out two Mazdas in his Toybaru.

Ian Stewart has just been dominating G Street and PAX with his Smurfy blue Volvo S60. Todd Kaley co-drove with "Mr. Moisturizer" but was unable to beat him and fell into third place while Ian took first. The only person faster than the Smurfs was Ryan Speaks who had TTD in his STU Subaru WRX STI. Steve Pierce was the only other driver in class with him and was nearly two seconds slower, although that is still an extremely fast time for this course.

SMST2 is consistently one of the largest classes at Martin events due to the sheer number of cars that qualify to compete in it. This makes it ideal for anyone trying to accumulate Tiger points because there will always be people to beat. This is the second time in recent memory that Travis Turner has let someone co-drive his car and then they beat him. This time it was Jay Payson who decided to teach Travis a lesson, beating him by half a second. However, the ultimate rivalry in SMST2 is between the father/son team of Leland and John Giddens. This month they drove John's Miata but Leland edged John out at the last minute by 0.4 seconds. Leland's prospects of becoming Tiger of the Year are growing ever brighter.

Overall, Scott Swartz designed a fun course- that is what it's all about anyways, right?
