RACE REPORT

By RSBlucher

June: not usually the hottest month of the year, but it did feel a lot like August. It was one of those “feels like 102” days. The competition this month was just as hot. Eighty-three drivers showed up to battle the blazing sun and those in their respective classes. The course was fast, but well balanced; as the Top 10 had everything from fire breathing STis to Corvettes, an S2000, a BRZ and a CS Mazda, all blazing blue, to a hot Honda and Miata.

Only 3 classes had single cars running in them, so Doug Prentiss/BS, Adam Kutchak/STS, and David Hanington/SSR took those wins. David should think about running AS, where there were 5 entrants this month. There were seven 2-car classes, four of those being won by Steve Marcum/FS, Robert Palmblad/HS, Ryan Speaks/STU (5th overall) and Tristan Sothern/SM (3rd overall), all by more than 2 seconds. Yours truly won SSM by 1.5, good for 9th overall, Matthew Lowe/DSP by .45 and finally Owen Brock/BSP over his co-driver Adam Lowe by just .019. There were four 3-car classes where Sean Hannan took DS by 1 second, Trevor Renson—who is a new MSCC member—winning in GS by .53, Mikael Edstrom/STF by .26 over Ben Turning who was hanging out in 3rd in Tiger points and Matthew McGough/DP by .28 over Chris Wells. Penny Belvoir hung tough by finishing just .7 out of first.

Penny was not the only female putting on a good show. Wendy Mertz was driving her dad’s Cayman S in AS and held the lead after the first two runs in the morning. Cliff Bordwell in an '09 Viper did his best by beating Wendy’s second run time by .3, but Wendy came back to go .4 faster than Cliff. It was up to Don Hosler next, so he folded up his flip phone and put the pedal down; 35.730 seconds later he beat Wendy’s time by .367, good enough for 10th overall. None of the three went faster in the afternoon.

STX featured 7 drivers, 6 Subaru’, and a lone Mazda. Chris Hammer (yes I have to say it) “hammered” the class by taking a 1.4 second win over Jason Chonody. Peter Tang got a ride from Chris Biedal to take 3rd. Chris finished 5th just .002 behind Madison Swartz in 4th.

In CS Jason Stroud and his RX-8 was the man to beat with a 5th run time good enough for 7th overall and the PAX win. Travis Turner was co-driving with Jason, so had equal equipment, meaning same car and sticky Hoosierstones, but could only get to within 1.3 seconds. William Van Tassel tried in his Miata, but fell .014 short of Travis. The rest of the field was driving twins and were clearly not the cars to have. We were all sad to hear that Jason will be moving to Atlanta, but I did happen to notice a slight smile on some of the CS competitors.

RACE REPORT

Novice was the largest class with 10 entries. Jerson Mezquita took the win, and therefore moved himself out of Novice, by .203 over Daniel Zamora in a BRZ that looked like it was set up to win STX. Sarah Maddox finished in 3rd.

SMST4 had just 4 entrants this month and Harry Corbin and his STi was the class of the field. On Harry's 2nd run he put down a flier of 34.997 that was good enough to win over Nate Adair's STi by 1.681. It was also the fastest time of the morning. Harry is currently 2nd in Tiger points and will be hard to beat.

SMST2 had 7 drivers and most have been previous winners in the class. But today it was all about tires and a little horsepower. George Bonafede took the win in his '15 Vette with a 35.195, 4th overall, beating Todd Kaley's S2000, 6th overall, by .159. Leland Giddens was 3rd just .4 behind.

Last but not least was STR. Seven cars made up this class, but only 6 were really racing against each other. Chris Larson in his S2000 made his fastest run on his second attempt in the morning with a 36.856. That gave him second place as Kevin Madyda could only get down to a 37.188 on his 4th run. Steven Hughes was seemingly in a class by himself with his 3rd and 4th runs in the 35.2 range. It was in the heat of the day and on his 5th run, which was almost the last run of the day, that Steven lit the course on fire with a 34.929, just .068 faster than Harry.

So, yes it was hot, in more ways than one. And as we move into the second half of the year the Tiger points race will be heating up, too. We will also see the first points drop of the year, which will definitely change the standings. See everyone in July and I'm sure it will be hotter!
