WE LIKE TO HAVE FUN

The Racing Game

By Stan Jones
(as revised by Bruce T. Abbott - without permission)

The Old Timer

I drove in dirt at Post's Farm
Back in the days of yore.
Rode the banks at Wall
On N.J.'s eastern shore,
The asphalt of high banked fame,
Old Bridge, Heiststown and more.
And now I am the oldest
Active driver in the game.

No roll bars in the bygone days,
Quick change or 4 disc brakes.
No hub rails on the horse tracks,
No thousand dollar stakes.
On street tires we drove on tracks
And most no more remain
Now I've lived to be the oldest
Active driver in the game.

Perhaps it was luck, or maybe skill,
That brought me through the years
Of sweat and toil and sleepless nights,
Of happiness and tears.
The hardest blows I've learned to take
And never to complain,
And I am the oldest
Active driver in the game.

There really is no limit
To the stories I could tell.
I've driven on the best of tracks,
And some were up & down hill.
I've seen my friends hit the wall,
This sport is far from tame
And I've lived to be the oldest
Active driver in the game.

On Stillwater and Lake Naomi
On slippery ice and swirling snow,
'Tween the islands and the stumps,
Slipping and sliding we did go.
I drove some courses through rough bumps,
Through dust and flying stones.
And now I am the oldest
Active driver in the game.

With grandchildren that ask for tales
Of races I have run.
They ask about my trophies
And I tell how each was won.
To them I am the best there is -
They proudly make the claim,
That their grandpa is the oldest
Active driver in the game.

It's time that I should quit the sport
For well I've stood the test
I've had my fun by doing
The thing that I like best
It's time to leave the cockpit
And let some other claim
The title of the oldest
Active driver in the game.

But will I be contented
To just stand and man a corner
Or will I climb back in again,
And perhaps become a winner.
To watch them run, to one like me,
Can never be the same -
So I'll go on - the oldest
Active driver in the game!
