RACE REPORT

This Report has no Point(s)! December 11, 2016 Pointless Event Report

It's that time again, time to dust off the one-off used race car, abuse someone else's tires, and race at Martin's annual Pointless Event! 54 racers put their rubber to the track and laid down times for Sunday's event. Competition was quite fierce with only 2.961 seconds separating the top 20 times. The Scott Schwartz designed track was quick and fun with a small overlap that allowed for fast cycling of cars out onto the circuit. It started off with a small straight into a ninety degree left, then immediately into an optional slalom. After the slalom was a double clamshell that turned to the right and headed drivers down the back portion of the track. There you found an offset slalom that was very fast, hitting into a right hand turn that wasn't. Hard on the brakes and still drivers needed to be careful not to come in too hot, it was very easy to overdo it here. Another little job gate before a fast turn to the right again pointing down the middle of the track space, very fast, almost 3rd gear, I'm sure some hit it easily. Then there was a clamshell to the right again, but only slightly, a light tap of the brakes before getting back onto the power and heading straight into a tight left turn, quickly followed by another tight ninety degree left. After that an offset gate to go through another tight 90 degree left, and heading into the finish under full power.

Peter Tang pushed the button for track mode and his computers took home the pointless Top Time of Day non-award with a time of 41.971 in the Focus RS. He was followed up, with a time of 42.832, by the stunning competition blue 2016 Viper piloted by Cliff Bordwell. 3rd place was had by Nathan Adair at 42.847 in his 2005 Subie, 4th was Ryan Speaks in his 2013 Subie at 43.373, and in 5th place was Kevin Madyda in a 1999 Mazda Miata (never heard of it, must be foreign) with a time of 43.626. Roger Averill was first place in CAM-C in his Mustang GT at 45.602. Pete Smith came home with top time in HC in his beautiful classic BMW M3 at 48.775. Someone named Troy Watters was first place in SMF in his Datsun Sentra Spec 5 with a time of 47.301. Jessica Tooley placed second in SSM driving a brilliant 1985 Toyota MR2; former club president Mickey Gauldin was first, prestigious company indeed. Andre Morales was first place in SMST2 in an M3 at 46.085, and lastly Kyle Estes was first place in Novice with a time of 47.211 in a Ford Fiesta ST. Additionally, some special mention going out to Kristofer Edstrom, making his first appearance with Martin, and indeed his first ever autocross event, continuing the Edstrom family tradition of driving the wheels off a poor little Fiat 500, turning in a time of 51.604.

That's it for 2016! We'll see everyone again in 2017, starting off the season at home, Lake Tech, on January 8.
