He we go friends, another Race Report! And in the spirit of February/Valentine's Day, this Race Report is packed with that little extra-special ingredient... Love.

This was the second points paying event of the year, held at the world center of love, The Lake Tech Weapons and Driving Range! The weather was the exact opposite of last month - sunny and mild. This is the type of weather we brave the alligators, sinkholes, and alligator-filled sinkholes to experience.

By the numbers, we had 102 entries! That's 20 more than our average! That gave us 3 heats with 5 runs per heat. We also had 3 different classes with 10 or more entries, and 7 classes with 5 or more entries! Competition abound, son!!

It was a long day, with the first car out at 0947 hours (for you military folks) and everything didn't get wrapped up until 1600 hours-ish. But honestly, time at the autocross is never time wasted, amirite??

The course was fast, fun, and flowy (maybe not a word). It had a wagon wheel! It had a big loop in the middle! It had people grabbing third gear! Third gear at Lake Tech! Allow me to quote Lil' John by saying "WHAT?!" Basically, it was a hoot, according to all involved.

Due to the flowiness (also maybe not a word), the AWD cars didn't have a distinct advantage. Ryan "I'm the fastest person again" Speaks took Top Time of the Day in his Subie STI. However, this time he was followed closely by Robert Palmblad, in his Super MX-5, and Leeland Giddens in his drop-dead perfect looking RX-7.

For the in-class battles:

In AS, current Tiger Champ, George Bonafede, is back to his winning ways, taking top spot over Aaron Stogsdill by 1.070 seconds.

In a heavily contested BS class, Jerry Stein took the gold over Glenn Forester by only 0.242 seconds!

In CS, Bob Blucher got Kevin Bonitz by a mere 0.210 seconds

In ES, the entire field of 7 cars was separated by just a tic over 3 seconds! In a field that close, it came down to Steven Hughes edging out Scott Swartz by only 0.129 seconds! That's close, folks!

...But not as close as HS class... Carlos Hernandez won the class by only 0.031 seconds over Nick Keene! To put that into perspective, if they both crossed the finish line at 40 mph, Carlos physically beat Nick by less than 2 feet... Science!

Much like Bigfoot, Travis Turner is rarely seen nowadays. But when he does make an appearance, it's impressive. In STR, Travis took the win from Erik Mayer by 0.481 seconds. Some say he did it in Erik's car. Others say the same thing... you be the judge.

Other notable notes:

In BS, there were 3 different Focus RS's, and they were all gray. That means only one thing - a glitch in the Matrix. It's real, people!

Chris Schneider saw one of the timing blocks turning into Agent Smith, so he smashed it to save us all. Thank you, Chris!

Victoria Edstrom did her part as well, taking out 8 cones in one run! Take that, computer overlords!!

We debuted a cone-counter whiteboard, which helps folks know if they hit any cones and how many. It was well received.

Mickey Gauldin and friend set the course up the day before. Thanks Mickey and friend!

George's Vette is still blue. Mikael's Vette is still traction-limited, but it held up to 15 total runs!

A jumping high-five goes out to one of our newest members, Nick Javier. Nick won the Novice class by nearly a second, in David Thierer's MX-5. Plus, he also beat David's time in the STS class! If he ran STS, Nick would have finished 2nd in what would have been a 5 car class! Well-done Nick! I would wish you luck in regular classing, but looks like you'll be just fine.

18 Now on to the March event at Lake Tech! See you all there! And remember, there is no spoon.
