RACE REPORT BY JUNEY THOMPSON

We just wrapped up our third race of the year! Therefore, welcome to the third Race Report of the year! As the trend has been, this event took place at our Home Sweet Home, Lake Tech!

As I go through the memory banks to recall the events of this... event... the first thing that stands out is: Fog! It was crazy foggy in the early morning hours! No wonder they call Lake Tech "The London of Lake County". (Disclaimer: I don't know if anyone actually calls it that.)

The second thing that stands out: Hero Runs!! We had more than a couple. Read on.

By the numbers, we had 94 entries! That gave us 3 heats with 6 (yes 6!!) runs per heat. A ton of classes were well populated, with STR, SMST4, and the Novices with 11 cars each!

The course was a short but fun! It had a combination of tight corners, mixed with open sweepers. It also had a crossover section, followed by an optional-entry slalom. It was certainly friendly to the small, agile cars. However, it was still plenty of fun for the, ahem, heavier folks.

As was the case last month, Ryan "Hey, remember that time I took Top Time of the Day for the first two events of the year?" Speaks took TTD in his 2005 STI. That's three in a row, now. It is unknown if this is even his final form. The TTD Top 3 was rounded out with Nate Adair (in Erik's 07 MX-5), and Cliff Bordwell in his 2013 BRZ. Glenn Forester, who took 4th in raw time, took top PAX honors in his 2017 Focus RS. Of note, Nate missed out on TTD by only 0.007 seconds! That's roughly 4 inches, if they were running at the same time!

Notable in-class happenings:

In AS, current Tiger Champ, George Bonafede, defeated the legendary Don Hosler by 0.444 seconds.

In BS, Glenn Forester put a hurtin' on the 9 car class, besting second place Eric Mertz by 0.972 seconds.

In GS, Eric Leitzke put down a Hero Run in his final pass to take the win over Darren Schneider by 0.063 seconds! Way to build that drama Eric!

Speaking of drama, has anyone else noticed the awesome HS battle that's been going on between Nick Keene and Carlos Hernandez this season?! Last month was crazy close and this month both guys put down their best times in their sixth runs. Carlos's final time of 32.895 WOULD have won the day, but Nick went all Sylvester Stallone/Over the Top on him and laid down a 32.556. For those keeping score at home, it's Nick -2, Carlos -1 on the season. Keep it going, fellas!

Remember last month, when I said Nick Javier should have no problem in his graduation from Novice to regular classing? Well, he won a five car STS field in his first outing... by 0.839 seconds... That winning run was also a Hero Run, with his sixth pass being roughly 1.5 seconds faster than his best run to that point. What's that? You want more Hero Run stories?! Well,

In CSP, John Schneider won over Karel Schneider by 0.118 seconds (Hero Run)

In SSM, Mickey Gaudin defeated Mikael Edstrom by 0.031 seconds (Hero Run!)

In Novice, Christopher Hernke defeated Carlos Vidal by 1.477 seconds. Carlos had the lead until Christopher found the speed on his sixth pass (HERO RUN!!). Welcome to regular classing Christopher!

Other notable notes:

In STR, Nate Adair may have beaten Erik Mayer in his own car (no more co-drives for him) 7 thousandths of a second!

We used a new green/red flag system at the finish line, letting people know if they had a clean run or not. People seemed to like it. Unless, perhaps, if they were colorblind.

Mitchell's Mobile Kitchen made one of the best cheesesteaks I've ever had.

There was an SMST4 BMW rally car (driven by George Hammerbeck and Lewis May) that actually had the class letters spelled out in the caked-on dirt. It wasn't exactly the proper way of doing it, but the creativity was appreciated.

I told Jonathan Yundt he was my favorite person there. Why? Because he drove an ex-police 2003 Crown Vic - still equipped with the PA and strobe lights. Well played.

A respectful bro-hug goes out to Brandon Forester. He's a new member, but he was willing to step up to the microphone and do color commentary for one of the heats. Not only did he not pass out, but he did a darn fine job! Darn fine!! Great work Brandon!

Now on to the April event at Lake Tech! See you there!
