RACE REPORT BY JUNEY THOMPSON

Ah, April. Spring is springing, and everything is covered in a thick layer of yellow pollen. It's like pixie dust, except it gives you a sinus infection. And, as they say, April showers bring... April Race Reports!!! (Disclaimer: No one says that.)

Speaking of showers, the night before this event was a damp one. There were concerns that we may end up running in the wet for the first time this year. But, Mother Nature smiled upon us and gave us a beautiful day at Lake Tech. The track did start off with some wet spots, but our crack team of track designers and course blower-offers did a great job of keeping us on the dry surfaces.

By the numbers, we had 97 entries! That gave us 3 heats with 5 runs per car. The Novices had a strong showing with 21 entries! We love the newbies!!

The course layout was a ripper, tending to favor the high power and/or high mechanical grip vehicles (proof - SMST4 and SMST2 took the top six spots in raw time). The course design allowed you options on corner entries. Plus, the gate spacing was tight enough to make a couple fast sweepers very rewarding or very punishing if you weren't precise. It was a great mix of fast, tight, and fun.

AND!! We used the skidpad!!! For those who have been around awhile, the skidpad has always been off limits. Well, not anymore! We started on the skidpad portion, which didn't present any grip problems, as the old surface is long past its prime. It was a welcomed change of pace.

Determined to keep playing the same broken record, Ryan "Destroyer of Worlds" Speaks took Top Time of the Day (TTD) in his 2005 Subie. Ryan is now 4-0 this season in crushing everyone's souls. The TTD podium was completed by Sean Glazar (2005 Evo III) and Nate Adair (not in Erik's car this time!). Chris Wells took home the gold in PAX with his 2004 Mazdaspeed MX-5.

Notable in-class happenings:

William Van Tassel and his 2004 911 took top AS honors over our current Tiger Champ, George Bonafede

Nick Javier continued his amazing rookie season by winning STS over Dinesh Ramessar by a mere 0.065 seconds!

Erik Mayer won STR over Kevin Madyda by only 0.073 seconds!

In an SMST2 battle of both Mazdas and Giddens(eses), Leland and his Miata defeated John and his RX-7 by only 0.092 seconds!

Other notable notes:

Mitchell's Mobile Kitchen was there again. Seriously, the cheesesteak will change your life.

Chris Hammer returned after a long hiatus!

Vincent Wiggins autocrossed a Nissan Juke because of reasons.

Not to be outdone, novice Tim Davis ran a Jeep Grand Cherokee! He and Vincent both did very well!

The Villages Miata club joined us! All very nice folks and very well cared-for roadsters.

Daniel Martin's psycho-billy V8 240SX was back on-track with a brand new front end, due to a recent drifting snafu. Both the car and Daniel did remarkably well, nearly taking the top prize in novice!

An approving nod with a friendly smile goes out to Brian Roman. He won the novice class soundly in his clean 1993 Civic. However the Facebook has informed me that a week later, his Civic suffered what the kids call, "Complete and catastrophic engine failure". We hope Brian can get his plucky Civic back on the road and join us for another event soon!

Now on to the May event at Lake Tech! It's our Mother's Day event, so bring a mom, (any mom!), and she runs for free! See ya then!
