Race Report BY Juney Thompson

Ah, September. I like to think Florida is at its most Florida during this month. Some days will be hot and sunny with a billion percent humidity, some days will consistently have rain at 5pm, and some will just be total rainouts. Plus, love is in the air! By that, I mean bugs... love bugs... nature's version of decaffeinated coffee. Read on for another LOVE-ly Race Report!!

The weather was warm with some dark clouds in the morning. The track had some wet spots from the previous night's weather. But luckily, the dark clouds went away and the track prep crew did a great job of drying things up by the first heat! It ended up being a mighty fine day indeed!

According to everyone I talked to, the course design was regarded as an overall winner! It was a great blend of tight and open and it had a great flow. It didn't seem to benefit any type of vehicle other than fast ones! The SMST2 and SMST4 folks took six out of the top ten spots in raw time, with a smattering of other machinery completing the top twenty.

It was great to have such a solid course because we had a ton of entries! 106 cars, to be exact! Despite the rockin' car count, we still managed to have three heats with five runs per heat!

Close in-class battles were plentiful!! Behold!

- Don Cross took the win in BS by 0.287 seconds over John Walsh!
- On his final run, Ryan Keene defeated Bill Morthland by 0.251 seconds as well as his brother Nick Keene by 0.279 seconds! Since Ryan and Nick were both driving the same 2013 BRZ, it was unofficially dubbed "The Keene Machine". I trademarked it.
- ES was a-poppin' with 13 entries! Chris Wells took the prize by 0.258 seconds. However, that doesn't tell the full story as 2nd through 7th were only separated by 0.572 seconds total!
- Something about those Miatas, man... in STR, Kevin Madyda took his second class win of the season, beating Erik Mayer and Michael Sauser by a combined 0.329 seconds!
- Zsa Zsa Blyden had the coolest name and the fastest ASP drive! She outpaced Kyle Robertson by 0.386 seconds!
- Leland and John Giddens shared an 04 Miata in SMST2, with Leland taking the fastest time by 0.230 seconds!
- In SMST4, Ryan Speaks, the general of the armies of Outworld and prince of the subterranean realm of Shokan, took Top Time of The Day AGAIN! But, he was very closely contested by one Mr. Carlos DeJesus. Carlos was only 0.196 seconds off from that top spot!
- Brian Roman took the win in SMF over Mikel Morgan. It was an all-Honda class with Brian's Civic besting Mikel's Integra by 0.990 seconds.
- Keith Harvey won Novice by 0.419 seconds in his gorgeous 93 Rx-7. Welcome to regular classing Keith!

Other notable notes:

- There were love bugs. There were also gnats. I believe they all got along.
- 2017 Tiger Champ, George Bonafede was not in attendance. The AS win went to Mr. Don Hosler!
- Driver interviews were conducted by the announcer during the heats and cursing was thankfully kept to a minimum.
- Erik and I performed a duet during heat 3!
- Smoke in the City provided scrumptious food. The brisket was delicious. The love bugs were jealous.
- Chris Wells may be the fastest man in ES, but he wasn't the fastest Wells... Young Trevor Wells eclipsed his dad's time by 0.218 seconds, using Olivia Hammac's kart! Great work by Trevor and very nice sportsmanship by Olivia to let him drive her ride!

Now on to the October event at Lake Tech! It's when Florida begins to relax a little and the love bugs go... wherever love bugs go when they aren't ruining everyone's lives... It's also the last event before the STATE CHAMPIONSHIP that we're hosting in November at the FIRM!!! See ya then!!
