Race Report BY Juney Thompson

Howdy Martinites! This is a unique little Race Report for two reasons. One, I wasn't actually at the March event. And two, I just had a tooth removed and I'm still coming down from the anesthesia! So, buckle up for some incoherent ramblings about things that may or may not have actually happened!

Seriously though, Ol' JT has intel scouts that feed him information so he can keep these race reports chock full of good, semi-credible info. But let's start with something easy, like the weather. From where I was in the metropolis of Sanford, Sunday's weather was a little warmer than what we've been seeing. Word has it that it was the same case in Lake Tech, where our March event took place. Despite it being a bit warm, it was an otherwise lovely day.

For this event, we ended up with 102 entries with four runs per heat. We worked with some new ideas involving the heats – breaking them down to five heats total. Feedback was good from the worker perspective as they weren't stuck out on a station for a long time. However, this created some issues in the run groups as things happened so quickly that some weren't able to cool their cars/tires down much. Multi-driver cars were even more affected. BUT! That's what's great about this club! We're willing to try new stuff and we're able to adjust as need be. The best part is that feedback was requested on social media and it was politely given. No silly keyboard arguments – just helpful discussion. I love you guys.

Judging by the overall results, the course didn't seem to favor any particular kind of car. We had a smattering of all sorts of machinery in the top 20! One thing it did do was create plenty of shake-ups in the current power rankings and points standings!!

- In SMST4, the 2018 Tiger Champion, Mr. Ryan Speaks, suffered quite the quizibuck by falling to both Justin McDonald and Terry Glazar in a very tight three-car field. Rumor has it he was upset that I wasn't there... I'm sorry Ryan.
- In STR it was Co-Drive Madness, with 10 out of 11 drivers sharing cars. Steven Hughes took the top spot with co-driver Mike Brau coming in second; both of them driving their National Championship winning MX-5. Steven also took Top Time of the Day! However, further down the list we see that Kevin Madyda got onto the podium, and was closely followed by a much-improved Shane Brown! Kevin also wanted me to point out that Shane beat Erik Mayer, who was co-driving Shane's car... I'm sorry Erik... But great work Shane!!
- In CS, current Tiger Points co-leader, Bob Palmblad (the younger) engaged in a hard fought battle with Ken Marion and his new 2019 MX-5! Ken came out on top this time, which will shake up those standings!
- In AS, Mark Burt took the win again, along with a third in overall raw time, with his mostly stock C6 Vette. The beat on the street tells me he and Diana Knerr were dealing with heat/limp mode problems with the 'Murica machine due to the quick heats. I'm sure the rest of the AS field is happy to know that...
- In CAM-C (aka The Most American Class There Is), some new challengers emerged! Ash Gravely and Mathew Griffin showed up with a 2017 1LE Camaro and let freedom ring all over the place! Ash was able to win the class and put a CAM-C car into the top 20 raw times for the first time in... Well, I don't know, as I haven't been able to do it myself in over two years. Some say I've been inconsolable upon hearing the news. They're right. Watch your back, Gravely...
- Closest win margin goes to our Novices! Ed Tchen, and his 2012 WRX, edged out Karl Bumstead and his 2002 MX-5 by a measly 0.065 seconds!! Holy cow! Ed, welcome to regular classing, you sneaky bugger, you! And Karl, great work on being so close!

So that will bring this month's Race Report to a close. See everyone out at Lake Tech for our April event. I will be one tooth lighter, so I am expecting to be much, much faster. You have all been warned!
