Race Report BY Kevin Madyda

Gather around, it's time for another special edition race report from yours truly. June was off on another adventure, some say it was the Hot Rod Power Tour, all we know is he wasn't at our event. Maybe he will be kind enough to share details next month? But enough about that, time to get into the good stuff.

Rain was threatening the event leading up, but somehow we dodged it all. The forecast looks to have scared off some entries we ended up with 55 entries each with 4 runs, unless you were Shane Brown and lost count lol (he only made 3). Course was simple enough to follow leading to very few off courses, while it also flowing rather nicely. All in all it was a good day that ran smoothly and efficiently allowing us to run and pack up before 1PM, so a huge thank you to our hosts.

Top time was Mr. Robert Palmblad in his "stock" 19 Miata beating out the AWD Evo's of Carlos Dejesus and Terry Glazar who finished 2nd and 3rd fastest raw times. The top 20 was filled out with a nice mix of cars, although Miatas made up 10 of the 20. Now for in-class action:

- In AS Stephen Claxton had a big smile on his face, because he won class and beat Mark Burt. The sad part though Stephen was only one in class and Mark switch to ES in a Miata, but a win is a win.
- Heather Hamill was able to beat co-driver, and son, Zac in her 07 Boxster to win BS, well done Heather!
- In DS my dude Adam Kutchak came out of retirement with his 13 Fr-S to win class over John Walsh in his Focus RS by 1.4 seconds.
- In ES Trevor Renson continued his winning ways despite new challengers. Mark Burt and Bob Blucher joined the party but were unable to catch Trevor, finishing 2nd and 3rd in class with Nate Adair picking up the 4th and final trophy.
- In STH Gene Van Glahn in his beautiful blue GTI put a hurting on the rest of the class winning by 2.8 seconds.
- In STR Kevin Madyda, who's that, said thank you to all ND owners for not showing up allowing him to take the win over Shane Brown and Robert Soto.
- Both the Merideths came out to join in their ultimate driving machines Bryce in his 97 328is and Gary in his 17 M3. Each won their classes running unopposed.
- XP was just like an episode of family feud, Karel and John Schneider battling it out. John managed to take down the mighty Karel and was the 5th fastest raw time of the day nicely done.
- Novice saw Jason McCoy take the win in his new Z06 Vette.

That about sums it up, another great event. As a reminder to those of you that picked up trophies, they will be able to pick those up at a future event. Stephanie we will all be hunting you down, coincidence I win STR and magically no trophies? I think not!

Looking forward to July, hope to see y'all there!
