Race Report BY Juney Thompson

Ah November, it's the month between October and December (little known fact!). It's the month in which we give thanks for everything we have and then try to kill each other over discount bath towels the next day. More importantly, it's the month we finish our Martin Sports Car Club point season at a rockin' little road course known as the FIRM!

The weather was just about perfect. It was mighty chilly in the morning, which we aren't really used to around these Central Florida parts. But, it warmed up pretty well and was a nice sunny fall day. Cherish it, I say. The course layout was, well... the FIRM! Seriously though, we do "autocrossify" it just a bit, which can change the character of the track quite dramatically. Fortunately, though, the autocrossification (triple word score!) for this event was a great one! The speeds were high, right out of the box, but not so high as to make it unsafe. The gates were set in such a way as to reward the brave and precise. Big power helps on a course like this, but it's not the decider. The Top 20 in raw times reflects that statement, as it was a nice mix of powerful stuff and not-powerful stuff (aka several Miatai). This layout did lend itself to quite a few off-courses and spins. Even yours truly enjoyed a taste of rallycross on my final run. I can see how people enjoy it, but I prefer pavement. But hey, I can now check that off the ol' bucket list...

As for the notable notes:

- Craig Tomeo and his very nice Cayman GT4 took Top Time of the Day! Great looking car and obviously a great driver!
- Mark Burt jumped back in to AS from last month's ES adventure. Mark took second overall in raw time but took 1st place in pax!
- In BS, Donald Lowe put on a show in his big Camaroe (See what I did there?!) But for reals, Donald was hustlin that big machine, taking third in raw time!
- In ES, Trevor Renson... did not win AGAIN! (record screech, glass drops, random person faints) Yep! This time, the ES winner was the living legend, Mr. Scott Swartz! Some may say that Trevor wasn't at this event, and they may be right, but... yep.
- In SMST2, Justin Hall took the win with the closest finish of the day! Justin was only 0.294 seconds quicker than Geoffrey Straubinger, which is very close for a track as long as the FIRM. But, as it was famously said, "It doesn't matter if you win by 0.294 seconds or a mile, winning is winning."
- Special shoutout to Vincent Ienaro, who brought out a very pretty 1983 Porsche 911! He also drove it – quickly!
- Special shoutout number 2 to Sam Victor and his burly, loud, light blue C5 Corvette. It's a very tall order to go up against the Edstroms and their red C5 monster, but Sam gave it a good run. As someone who's ridden with him a few times, I can say his driving is definitely improving. And his car is slightly terrifying...
- In Novice, Carlos Gomez took the top spot in his Mazdaspeed 3! Very nice driving, Carlos, and welcome to regular classing!!
- 2018 Tiger Champion Ryan Speaks... was not there (frowny face). And this, my friends, will be the last time I mention our 2018 champion. Why? Because a new champion will be crowned! Our annual year-end banquet is December 1st, where we will announce the new 2019 Tiger Champion! It's been a wild year, with some hard fought battles, and now it's time to see where the chips have fallen. Who will it be? You'll have to buy a ticket to the banquet and come see for yourself! I'll save you a seat! Just be prepared for me to ask you if you are going to finish your dessert. I have a bit of a sweet tooth, you see. I'll also be selling some very nice discount bath towels, for a small upcharge, of course. The bloodstains will wash out.
