Race Report BY Kevin Madyda

Hello all and welcome as I bring to you a special edition race report. This one off report comes from the one and only pit patter editor. If you like it tell those fellas in charge this guy needs a raise, if you don't take a moment to reflect on how wrong you are and then tell those fellas get this guy a raise!

Now on to the fun it was our 3rd and final event at OCCC for the year, big thank you to OCCC for kindly allowing us burn some rubber 3 months in a row across the lot. I know we will all miss that feeling of joy when you stroll up the stairs, open the door and that AC hits.

Onto the event it was a quick one with a threat of rain developing in the afternoon. We had 113 drivers spread out over 3 heats limiting to 3 runs each. The course was fun and challenging, lacked some flow but well worth the price of admission. Ultimately we did get finished and packed up before the rain keeping all the cones dry much to the excitement of our president.

- In AS Tim Reardon showed Aaron Stogsdill that yellow corvettes are faster than sparkly red ones but taking the class with a 0.577 margin.
- Terry Glazar brought his new toy to win SS in a 2019 Cayman S, quite a different drive than his usual neck breaking AWD Evo.
- In ES no surprise there yet again Mark Burt with another victory in his MR2, Chris Wells claims it was an accident but all we know is he had some new aero on his Miata not enough though as it was only good enough for 2nd with Scott Swartz coming in 3rd.
- GS in the battle of the German cars ultimately saw Zachary Blumer come out on top in his 2015 VW GTI.
- STS doesn't surprise me anymore but Nate Adair won by showing Matt Bradford again how to drive his own Miata slightly faster, kinda embarrassing but I will let you all draw your own conclusions.
- STR saw our own secretary Adam Arcencibia-Moore win the class of 10 also laying down the fastest fendered car time of the day with a 33.351, who knew secretaries were that fast? Pepperidge Farm knew
- In STU Nick Dunlap put a beatdown on the rest of the competition with a margin of 2.680 seconds over 2nd place.
- CAM-C again failed to provide the result Juney Thompson was looking for with Betty White. Juney's arch rival Timothy Engle in that darn Mustang took the victory with codrivers Carlos Ortiz and Bryan Kelsey in 2nd and 3rd in the 2011 Camaro SS, followed by Juney in 4th. Guess that means Ford > GM?
- In SMST2 Robert Palmblad racked up another victory, with Adam Severinsen in his primed but not painted Porsche coming up 2nd. The Giddens clan brought a very fun but not very fast Charger out unable to challenge for a win unfortunately.
- SMST4 we saw Harry Corbin cigar and all took down 2 mighty fast drivers in Justin McDonald and former tiger champion Ryan Speaks. Yes you read that right Ryan Speaks is beatable he is human!
- Mickey Gauldin had some rare competition in BM beating Dave Welsh in the battle of the open wheel mod cars. Mickey also barely squeezed out FTD by 0.002 over Adam in his STR Miata!
- We had quite a few karts and yes they were all very fast, Paul Wright laid down the fastest raw time only 2.435 seconds faster than everyone else. Olivia Hammac was the 5th fastest raw time with a 33.656. And in JB Trevor Wells got the victory over Oliver Wright.
- In novice we had Erick Ramessar in his 1996 Impreza winning the class of 18, with Manny Baba and Cody Rosenweig coming 2nd and 3rd.

Guess this brings our September event to an end, its been fun OCCC we will miss you but Lake Tech in Tavares I am sure misses us. October hopefully brings about some nicer weather along with many intriguing questions... Who will win Tiger? Will STS run last again? Will Adam ever finish painting his Porsche? Can most of you even remember how to get to Lake Tech?
